58	The Bull	Bradley Road Burrough Green CB8 9NH	Burrough Green Parish Council	The Bull is the only public house in the Parish of Burrough Green and hosts a range of community activities and events that contribute to village life. These include games nights, televised sports events, open mic evenings, live music, bingo, and quizzes. It is regularly used by people from neighbouring villages that no longer have a pub of their own, extending its social value beyond parish boundaries. The Bull provides an essential venue for social interaction, helping to reduce isolation and strengthen community cohesion. Many groups such as community sports teams and local interest groups use the Bull as a meeting point, and it also hosts annual events.	<input type="checkbox"/>	12/02/2026
57	The Red Lion	The Red Lion 43 High Street Swaffham Prior Cambridgeshir e CB25 0LD	Swaffham Prior Parish Council	The public house furthers the social wellbeing or cultural, recreational or sporting interest of the local community as it is a well-used space where various organisations meet, as well as hosting free events. It supports many community activities, and hosts various community groups and charities including weekly, monthly and ad-hoc committee meetings. A variety of examples have been provided by the nominator. Annual music events for the entire village are held in the summer in the beer garden. There are no shops or a post office in the village therefore the pub can be used by the community as a social space.	<input type="checkbox"/>	06/11/2025
55	Centre E	1 The Forum, 24 Barton Road, , Ely, CB7 4DE	YOUTH ELY HUB CIO	Centre E is a community building with multi-use spaces providing facilities for the public, charities, small business startups, and community groups providing health, education, and social services. Various charities are permanently based on site, plus some small business, start-ups, and education providers. Counselling and meeting rooms are significantly used by private, charitable, and local authorities delivering services to many sectors. Centre E is meeting the increased demand for social services by continuing to develop the site to offer further counselling and meeting spaces as well as for social events. The Main Hall is hired by the hour by multiple regular users on a weekly basis offering exercise classes, dance/music, drama, martial arts, toddler groups, and community events. It is also possible for the public to hire the venue for private events such as weddings and other family gatherings. Community groups and individuals can hire the hall for larger events. The current lease expires in 2030, and the charity intends to apply for renewal for the foreseeable future and long term.	<input type="checkbox"/>	14/04/2025

54	St Andrews Hall	St Andrews Hall Between 68 - 70 Main Street, , Witchford, CB6 2HQ	Witchford Parish Council	The hall is used regularly and often, several times a week, by not-for-profit community groups in the village of Witchford. Correspondence from user groups has been provided which provide details of the community benefits of the building as well as its demand. The hall provides a focus for community events. Evidence has been provided including emails from hall users, a list of current users and recent public and community events at the hall. Feedback from users and community groups state that the use of the hall is vital for the community, conveniently situated, friendly, well equipped, and the space brings local people together as well as being a welcoming space for new members of the community.	<input type="checkbox"/>	24/02/2025
49	Maids Head Public House Wicken	12 High Street Wicken Ely Cambs CB7 5XR	Wicken Parish Council	The Maid's Head is a hub for the community. It is used regularly by community groups and clubs such as the Wicken Amateurs Football Club. A number of other clubs use the pub to meet for committee meetings, these include: Wicken Horticultural Society, Wicken Recreational Ground Committee, Wicken Beer festival Committee, Wicken Fete Committee, Jubilee (and special events) Committee. It is also a meeting place for residents who are needing company. Recently local residents have started to arrange regular village get togethers which are advertised on the village Facebook, the first of which was well attended. Wicken does not have many amenities and limited public transport. This means that the pub is the central hub for locals to meet and is essential for the social wellbeing of a number of village residents.	<input type="checkbox"/>	08/01/2024
48	Isleham Railway Nature reserve	Isleham Railway Nature reserve, Fordham Road, Isleham, CB7 5LU	Friends of Isleham Nature Reserves charity	The Isleham railway nature reserve does further the social wellbeing or cultural, recreational or sporting interest of the local community. It is popular with dog walkers (around 100 per day), the local school uses the area, and the space is used by the community for socialising. Survey responses from the community show that it is a well-used area, appreciated for its peace and calm, and used mainly for dog walking and personal exercise. It is also an educational space for children to learn about nature as it is an area of biodiversity which shelters birds, mammals and lizards.	<input type="checkbox"/>	31/07/2023
47	Isleham Community Orchard	Isleham Community Orchard Station Road, Isleham CB7 5QT	Friends of Isleham Nature Reserves charity	The community orchard furthers the social wellbeing or cultural, recreational or sporting interest of the local community. It is a quiet green space to sit, is easily accessible to residents without needing to drive and has become increasingly valued as the village has grown. Survey responses have shown that the orchard is a well-used space for community engagement, a space for peace and calm, and is used by the pre-school for young children to play, explore nature and wildlife, and to celebrate the local community. In addition, an annual community event takes place at the orchard.	<input type="checkbox"/>	31/07/2023
